

The Power of Boardroom Conversations

1st March, 8 - 12pm.

What will be the most important Boardroom Conversations that you have in 2016?

Do you want to improve your ability to communicate effectively, your relationships and leadership effectiveness on Boards? This Unconvention will share insights and tools on how to improve the level of conversations we have on our Boards. It will again bring together a wide range of people to improve your networks and opportunities to have unconventional conversations with people from different generations.
